Re: Securities and Exchange Commission v. Olayinka Temitope Oyebola and Olayinka Oyebola & Co. (Chartered Accountants)
Case no. 1:24-cv-07363

Dear Judge Gorenstein:

We represent Defendants Olayinka Temitope Oyebola and Olayinka Oyebola & Co. (Chartered Accountants) (“Defendants”) in the above-captioned matter. We respectfully request an adjournment to April 29, 2024 of the telephonic hearing scheduled for April 14, 2025 regarding our pending motion to withdraw as counsel for Defendants (the “Motion,” ECF No. 58). The Motion was filed on Friday, April 4, 2025. On Monday, April 7, 2025, the Court issued an order scheduling the April 14 telephonic hearing (ECF No. 61).

The parties are presently engaged in settlement discussions. We are aware of the Court’s rule (Rule 1(F) of Your Honor’s Individual Practices) requiring a request for an adjournment of an appearance to be made at least five business days before the appearance, absent unforeseen circumstances. However, substantive settlement discussions with the SEC only began this week, after the Court scheduled the hearing. We are respectfully submitting this request outside of the five-day period because a resolution of this matter would obviate the need for a hearing on our Motion.

Pursuant to Rule 1(F), our office contacted the Deputy Clerk on April 10, 2025. The Clerk informed us that April 29, 2025 and April 30, 2025 are available as alternative dates for the telephonic hearing. The undersigned counsel, Defendants, and the SEC’s counsel are all available on those dates. We had previously conferred with the SEC on April 9, 2025, and they informed us that they did not object to adjourning the hearing.

We appreciate the Court’s consideration of our request.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCOSKY BROOKMAN LLP
